Dearest Malkhassian family, it has been my privilege getting to know Meranouche over the last year. She was a strong, beautiful, determined woman. She showed strength of character and joy through her trials. Always loving, caring, honest and respectful towards all. She has made a mark in my life and I'm grateful to have been able to assist her and become her friend. She was a good friend, and I loved her. I will miss her beautiful smile. She loved you all dearly.

Annie, Julie, John, Matthew and Emily, my sincerest condolences.
